Beginning Programming (Java)  Configuring your USB Flash Drive
CMSC 1513  Lecture 4

Purpose: The purpose of this lecture is to prepare your USB Flash Drive for use in this class.

Overview: We are going to open your USB Flash Drive and create several folders on the drive.

Open your USB Flash Drive.
Steps:
1. Insert your USB Flash Drive in the USB receptacle on your computer.
2. Click the Start Button on your computer and select Computer in the left column.

Figure 1. Click the Start Button on your computer.
3. Click your USB Flash Drive (TRAVELDRIVE).

Figure 2. Click your USB Flash Drive (TRAVELDRIVE).
4. Observe that your USB Flash Drive is empty.

Figure 3. An empty USB Flash Drive.
5. Create a new folder on your USB Flash Drive.
   5.1. Right-click your mouse.
   5.2. Move your cursor to New
   5.3. Select Folder on the fly out menu.

!Figure 4. Creating a new folder on your USB Flash Drive
6. Change the name of the folder to “CMSC 1513 – Beginning Programming.”

Figure 5. Change the folder name to “CMSC 1513 – Beginning Programming.”
7. Create two new folders inside “CMSC 1513 – Beginning Programming.” Call the folders “Lectures” and “Projects.”

Figure 6. Create folders “Lectures” and “Projects.”
8. Create a new folders inside “Lectures” Call the folder “L004.”

Figure 7. Create folder “L005.”