- Boolean algebra can be used to determine if two Boolean expressions are equivalent.
- Kmaps are designed to assist the designer to find a representation requiring the fewest number of gates to implement the Boolean expression.